

CHART
OF THE COASTS
OF AMERICA & ASIA
from California to Macao
according to the Discoveries made in 1786 & 1787 by the Boussole & Astrolabe.

A historical map of the North Pacific coast, spanning from the Sea of Okhotsk in the west to the coast of North America in the east. The map shows the coastline of Siberia, the Bering Strait, and the coastlines of Alaska and Canada. Key features include the Sea of Okhotsk, the G. of Penzina, the Barren Desert, the Apoupiniskoi Nos, the Oudonokoi Nos, the Ochotk, the Tzoukot Guba, the I. Karapui, the M. Ozernoi, the M. Kourant, the Bas Kouratshkoi Nos, the Ramkochatkoii Nos, the Bhering's I., the Kronotzkoii Nos, the Opinen I., the Uda R., the Tschantar I., the Tongoufus, the Oudorokoi Nos, the I. Kichtak, the L. Röthunak, the L. Schumugan, the Vana I., the L. Schumugan, the Cook's R., the R. Zamna, the Prince W., the Sonne, the C. Hinchingsbrou, the Compeller's B., the M. S. Elias, the Montagu I., the Kayu I., the B. de Monti, the Behring's Bay, the Port des Français, the V. Soud, the P. de los Remedios, the M. M. Hyacinth, the C. Tschirikoff, the Port Bucarew, the R. of Peace, the L. Athaparkon, the Fort of the Chipewyas, the Beaver Indians, the Strong-bow Indians, the Horn Mountain, the Slave L., the Chipewyas, and the Beaver Indians. The map also includes a scale for Degrees of Latitude North (50, 60, 70) and a scale for Miles (0, 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900, 1000).